Contact your provincial organization listed on the previous page to determine when your association requires you to submit your application for the provincial award.

WHAT TO INCLUDE IN THE APPLICATION:

A selection of no less than ten high-resolution images suitable for reproduction on social media, print etc.

Video presentation link if available, media stories/broadcasts showcasing your stewardship efforts.

TESA SPONSORS

TESA sponsorship program is available to appropriate organizations that wish to affiliate themselves with the CCA's TESA program. In addition to showing support for environmental stewardship and Canada's beef cattle producers, the program also provides the opportunity to join industry leaders, government representatives and nearly 60,000 Canadian beef farms in the national discussion on environmental issues affecting the industry.
